Kyle Bradley loves his hometown. He's lived in Monterey all his life. Even when he married a few years ago, he brought his beautiful bride, Brooke, to live in the quaint mountain town. Bradley is also involved with civic and other groups in the community.

What makes a hometown is it's people, ones that he knows and cares about. That's why, he said, after a career in banking and management, he wanted open up his new business in his hometown to be able to help those in Monterey and the surrounding communities find affordable insurance.

The Bradley Agency, located at 102 E. Commercial Ave., is now open for business, offering auto and home, property and casualty, health and life, small business and commercial insurance.

Shopping for the most coverage for the best rate for his customers, Bradley can choose from a long list of carriers including The Hartford, Travelers, Safeco, Metlife, Group, National Provincial, Chubb, American Modern, Foremost, Hagerty and others.
